

2010 CHATEAU DE SOURS “LA SOURCE BLANC” WHITE BLEND

👤 David Honig ⌚ January 15, 2014 📁 Tasting Notes

Like the front lawn on a summer day. Cut grass and tropical fruits show on the nose. The palate has grass, pineapple, then mango. The finish adds lingering lemon. Remarkably bright and fresh, this will contrast well with foods prepared with mayo. Pair with lobster rolls. Recommended. 88 points.

WHO: Chateau de Sours

WHAT: Sauvignon Blanc (80%), Semillon (20%)

WHERE: France, Bordeaux, Bordeaux Contrôlée

WHEN: 2010

HOW MUCH: $15

Palate Press works every day to find the best wine writers around the world, and to pay them for their work. If you like what we're doing, we hope you will consider a $1/month voluntary subscription. Our subscribers will get additional benefits soon, including free wine advice and a discounted membership fee in the soon to be launched Palate Press Wine Club, an exclusive and limited club featuring the wines winemakers make for themselves.

Support Palate Press