CHÂTEAU DE SOURS, BORDEAUX ROSÉ 2012,

12.5% The name of the property is pronounced soar – like a bird (not sour like a lemon), and at Chateau de Sours the fresh-tasting flavours really do soar. This is a classic Bordeaux rosé, made from merlot and cabernet franc grapes, bottled young to capture complex red summer fruit flavours. It is a dry rosé and its refreshing flavours work well as an evening sun-downer or to accompany salads and grilled fish, especially if there are some olives on the plate.

Find this on the wine list at James Martin's Talbot Hotel in Malton, North Yorkshire, or at The Swan, Wedmore at around £28 or buy it to drink at home at Majestic Wine Warehouse (majestic.co.uk) and at Bon Coeur Fine Wine in Yorkshire at around £9.99 (bcfw.co.uk). Christine Austin
